PER CURIAM.

Robert L. Floyd ("Petitioner") seeks review of a decision by Hearing Officer Donna George ("Hearing Officer George") sustaining the suspension of his driver's license. Petitioner raises two arguments on appeal: (1) the initial traffic stop was unlawful, and (2) Hearing Officer George made factual findings in the final order unsubstantiated by evidence entered at the Formal Administrative Review hearing.

We find that there was competent substantial evidence in the record to support Hearing Officer George's findings regarding the traffic stop and her conclusion that the arrest was lawful. We grant the petition, however, for the limited purpose of remanding the case to Hearing Officer George to correct a scrivener's error in the final order. The final order affirming the suspension of the Petitioner's license mistakenly stated his direction of travel as in the middle of the east and westbound lanes of traffic, rather than the north and southbound lanes. This Court has previously granted a similar petition for the limited purpose of remanding the case to the hearing officer to correct a scrivener's error and to enter an amended order. Deluca v. Dep't of Highway Safety & Motor Vehicles, 19 Fla. L. Weekly Supp. 1000a (Fla. 15th Cir. Ct. 2012). Accordingly, the Petition for Writ of Certiorari is GRANTED and the order of suspension is QUASHED for the limited purpose of remanding this case to Hearing Officer to enter an amended order correcting the scrivener's error. In all other respects, the Petitioner's arguments are without merit.
