Opinion filed: August 22, 2008

Appeal from Reginald R. Corlew,
County Court in and for Palm Beach County.

For Appellant, Casey S. Gaylord, DC#W04359, Okeechobee Correctional Institution, 3420 N.E.
168th St., Okeechobee, FL 34972.

For Appellee, Michelle Zieba, Esq., Office of the State Attorney, 401 N. Dixie Highway, West
Palm Beach, FL 33401.

Casey Gaylord appeals the lower court's denial of his Motion to Correct Illegal Sentence ("Motion") pursuant to Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.800(a). In his original Motion, Gaylord argues that the sentence imposed during the violation of probation hearing is illegal, since nowhere on the record is there an affidavit for violation of probation. The trial court denied the Motion without attaching records which were relied upon and failed to state a reason supporting the denial. Gaylord now appeals the denial. In order for this Court to provide review of the denial of relief, the trial court should have attached records which were relied upon to deny relief or a reason for the denial. See Garnett v. State, 957 So. 2d 32, 35 (Fla. 2d DCA 2007); Inclima v. State, 625 So. 2d 978 (Fla. 5th DCA 1993). With such records or reasons, this Court would be able to review the trial court's decision. Garnett, 957 So. 2d at 35. Accordingly, the trial court's order is REVERSED and REMANDED for instructions to attach to the order the pertinent records or to state in the order the reasons supporting the denial of relief. Otherwise, an appropriate remedy shall be determined and awarded.
